GENERAL.

Sir John Lester Kaye has established the headquarters of his schemes at Calgary.

The steamer Brandon with 1,000 tons of rails for the Portage branch of the R. & W. B. went down recently on Lake Superior.

The proposed police drill at Saskatoon is off owing to sickness amongst the horses of some of the divisions that were to take part.

Reported that Ramsey County, Dakota, has applied for state assistance to avert starvation impending through the loss of last season's crop by frost.

Attorney General Martin, of Manitoba, is after the Call for libel. D. MacArthur, W. F. Alloway and W. F. Luxton are among the witnesses for the defence.

W. H. Edwards, editor of the Annieston, Alabama, Hot B. ast, a prohibition paper, was dangerously shot by a man named Lawrence. The shooting was on account of Edwards' course on the temperance question.

Indian Commissioner Reel reports that on the Indian reserves at Duck Lake and at Carlton the crop is fair; at B. St. Lawrence and at South Branch the best, about 55; at Prince Albert good, with a little frost in low places.

The Pioneer Press of St. Paul, estimates the Dakota and Minnesota wheat crop at 40 per cent. less than last year. Mills-Lace county in Minnesota reports three bushels of wheat to the acre, and the highest average is ten bushels in North Minnesota and Dakota.

Hon. Edward Blake has entered upon legal practice again in Toronto and will be it said abandon politics. The name of the firm is Blake, Lash & Cassels and is composed of Edward Blake, S. H. Blake, Z. A. Lash, Walter Cassels, A. Mackenzie, Walter Creelman and Honne Blake.

A correspondent of the Calgary Herald thinks the agricultural exhibition should not be held earlier than October 20th, in order to give farmers a chance to compete with grain, which they are not likely to have threshed out before. He alludes to the tendency of the townspeople to "run" the show.

Surveying operations in Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia have not been extensive this year owing to the large amount of surveyed land open for settlement. Some forty townships comprising 800,000 acres were surveyed and subdivided. Five parties have been engaged in British Columbia exclusive of the above.

A decision of the supreme court of Utah has been rendered declaring the Mormon church corporation dissolved and its property, except the temple-block and buildings, escheated to the state. The court further decided that the present church still upholds, teaches and maintains polygamy and that any declaration of the propriety to it could be for the purpose of upholding polygamy and would be unlawful. The case will be taken to the supreme court of the United States.
